

§ 250.70a

and may, at the discretion of the regional director (compliance), be required in any other contingency affecting the validity or impairing the efficiency of an existing bond. Executors, administrators, assignees, receivers, trustees, or other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, continuing or liquidating the business of the principal, shall execute and file a new bond or obtain the consent of the surety or sureties on the existing bond or bonds. Where, under the provisions of § 250.72, the surety on any bond given under this subpart has filed an application to be relieved of liability under said bond and the principal desires or intends to continue the operations to which such bond relates, he shall file a valid superseding bond to be effective on or before the date specified in the surety's notice. New or superseding bonds shall show the current date of execution and the effective date.

TERMINATION OF BONDS

§ 250.71 Termination of bonds.

Any bond given under the provisions of this subpart may be terminated as to future transactions—

(a) Pursuant to application of surety as provided in § 250.72;

(b) On approval of a superseding bond;

(c) On notification by the principal to the regional director (compliance) that he has discontinued transactions under the bond; or

27 CFR Ch. I (4-1-01 Edition)

(d) On notification by the principal to the regional director (compliance) that he has discontinued business.

§ 250.72 Application of surety for relief from bond.

A surety on any bond given under the provisions of this subpart may at any time in writing notify the principal and the regional director (compliance) that he desires, after a date named, to be relieved of liability under said bond. Such date shall be not less than 10 days after the date the notice is received by the regional director (compliance). The surety shall also file with the regional director (compliance) an acknowledgment or other proof of service on the principal. If such notice is not thereafter in writing withdrawn, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on the date named in the notice, and the surety shall be relieved from liability to the extent set forth in § 250.73.

§ 250.73 Relief of surety from bond.

Where the surety on a bond given under the provisions of this subpart has filed application for relief from liability, as provided in § 250.72, the surety shall be relieved from liability for transactions occurring wholly subsequent to the date specified in the notice, or the effective date of a new bond, if one is given.

§ 250.74 Release of pledged securities.

Securities of the United States pledged and deposited as provided in § 250.63, shall be released only in accordance with the provisions of 31 CFR part 225. Such securities will not be released by the regional director (compliance) until the liability under the bond for which they were pledged has been terminated. When the regional director (compliance) is satisfied that they may
